

Burke-Gilman Trail Redevelopment Study Citizens Advisory Group

November 16, 2004, 7-9 p.m.
Lake Forest Park City Hall
17425 Ballinger Way NE - in the LFP Towne Centre

Agenda

Welcome

- Mayor Dave Hutchinson, Lake Forest Park
- Carolyn Edmonds, King County Council, District 1
- Nori Catabay, King County Executive's Office

Meeting overview

- Jessie Israel, King County Department of Natural Resources and Parks

Citizens Advisory Group introductions

- Please take 2 minutes to introduce yourselves and describe your interest in serving the advisory group
- Are all stakeholders represented?

King County's regional trail system, Burke-Gilman Trail background

- Tom Koney, Assistant Director, King County Parks
- Kevin Brown, Capital Projects, King County Parks

Burke-Gilman Trail Redevelopment Study update

- Diane Steen, Atelier ps

Group structure

- Select interim lead

Determine future meeting schedule

- 3rd Tuesday of each month? Next meeting Jan. 18?

Set view trip

#

Mission of the CAG: to provide King County with thoughtful and informed recommendations on issues related to the proposed redevelopment of the Burke-Gilman Trail through Lake Forest Park. It is understood that the CAG's viewpoint and subsequent recommendations are intended to be a reflection of the public's various positions.